

NCF Rising Stars programme

This exciting new programme for emerging leaders within the Not for Profit Sector is still in development. However, there are a number of core commitments for both the Rising Star and their organisational sponsor.

For Rising Star

- To attend the two day Annual Conference in Birmingham on the 15th and 16th May 2017. The full cost, for the Rising Star, of this place is being paid for through support from Carterwood, with the exception of travel and expenses.
- To attend a half day workshop in London, hosted by Morgan Hunt, to meet with their mentors, and to undertake a skills audit. Date to be decided – likely to be July 2017. No additional cost, with the exception of travel and expenses.
- To connect with their mentor four times during the Rising Stars programme.
- To take part in two or more additional activities during the programme. A series of events/workshops is being developed to support the development of these emergent leaders. It is recognised that not all will suit every candidate, however, there is an expectation that they will join in with at least two of these. Dates and venues to be agreed. No additional cost, with the exception of travel and expenses.
- To carry out a further skills audit at the end of the programme.
- To join a closed LinkedIn group for Rising Stars and mentors. This will provide an opportunity to share practice and resources.
- To agree to have your name and image shared by NCF to promote the Rising Stars programme.

For Organisational Sponsor/Mentor

- To attend the two day Annual Conference in Birmingham on the 15th and 16th May 2017, as a paying delegate.
- To take on the role of mentor for a Rising Star mentee from another NCF member organisation.
- To attend a half day workshop in London, hosted by Morgan Hunt to meet with their mentees. Date to be decided – likely to be July 2017. No additional cost, with the exception of travel and expenses.
- To connect with their mentee four times during the Rising Stars programme.
- To join a closed linked in group for Rising Stars and mentors. This will provide an opportunity to share practice and resources.
- To agree to have your name and image shared by NCF to promote the Rising Stars programme.

NCF are in the process of negotiating additional benefits for Rising Star participants and finalising a programme which is likely to include visits, seminars and events. If you have additional suggestions to augment this programme, then please do not hesitate to contact me at vic.rayner@nationalcareforum.org.uk
